

Dear Sir

I have sent you a bond & Mortgage that I bought at Wells Shop, & I should have filled it up, but, did not know how many Negros you would chuse to put in it - at foot are the Names of all the Negros at the Distillery & mine in town & you may put in the whole or what you please, you must have two witnesses to the Mortgage, & you may either call on me to morrow morning or I will on you, erly which ever you like, as I must go soon over the water & I want to know how this matter is settled, before

I go — I am yours with respect J: Gorran
